THE SOCIETY OF ARTS

Was founded in 1754, and Incorporated by Royal Charter in 1847, for "The Encouragement of the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of the Country, by bestowing rewards for such productions, inventions, or improvements as tend to the employment of the poor, to the increase of trade, and to the riches and honour of the kingdom; and for meritorious works in the various departments of the Fine Arts; for Discoveries, Inventions, and Improvements in Agriculture, Chemistry, Mechanics, Manufactures, and other Useful Arts; for the application of such natural and artificial products, whether of Home, Colonial, or Foreign growth and manufacture, as may appear likely to afford fresh objects of industry, and to increase the trade of the realm by extending the sphere of British Commerce; and generally to assist in the advancement, development, and practical application of every department of science in connexion with the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of this country."

The importation of new products from our Colonies, the reclaiming of waste lands, the improvement of Agriculture, the application of Chemistry to the Industrial Arts, and the improvement of Machinery were amongst the earliest objects to which the Society directed its attention, and its transactions show that the Premiums it has awarded, the opportunities it has afforded for discussion, and the information it has been the means of disseminating have led to many important improvements in Manufactures, and have laid open many new and valuable sources of industry and Commerce, in the United Kingdom, the Colonies and Foreign Countries.

From a very early period the Society has held Exhibitions of various kinds, which, by showing what had already been done, and the degree of perfection that had been attained, have stimulated the progress of invention and design, and directed attention to points still requiring improvement. Since its Incorporation by Royal Charter, in 1847, it has been able to carry out these objects more systematically, and by holding a series of Industrial, Mechanical, Educational, and Fine Art Exhibitions it prepared the way for the Great International Exhibition of 1851, which was originated by the Society.

It was subsequently occupied in promoting the International Exhibition of 1862, and obtained a Guarantee Fund of nearly £450,000 for that object, and a Royal Charter, incorporating Earl Granville, K.G., the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, Sir C. Wentworth Dilke, Bart., Thomas Baring, Esq., M.P., and Thomas Fairbairn, Esq., as Her Majesty's Commissioners for carrying out the Exhibition.

In 1852 the Society founded its "Union of Institutions," and now has about three hundred Literary Scientific, and Mechanics' Institutions, and Local Educational Boards in the United Kingdom and the Colonies, in Union with it. One of the principal objects of this "Union" being the promotion of adult education, the Society has appointed a Central Board of Examiners, and for several years past has held Examinations of members of these Institutions and other persons, in all the principal branches of knowledge. At the last Examination there were eight hundred and fifteen Candidates examined at eighty-one different places in various parts of the country. To these Candidates the Society awards Prizes and Certificates. His Royal Highness the late President showed his interest in the Examinations by offering an annual Prize of Twenty-five Guineas as a special mark of distinction, and this Prize has been graciously continued by Her Majesty the Queen.

The Society publishes a Weekly Journal, entitled the "Journal of the Society of Arts," which contains Reports of the Society's Proceedings and Transactions, Reports of the Institutions in Union, and a variety of information connected with Arts, Manufactures and Commerce; the Society also enters into Correspondence and exchanges Publications with Foreign and Colonial Societies.

The Society consists of about three thousand members.

Candidates for Membership* must be proposed and recommended by three Members of the Society, according to a form, in which the name, rank, and usual place of residence of the Candidate are stated. This form is read at an Ordinary Meeting of the Society, and afterwards hung up in the Society's room until the second following meeting, when the Candidate is balloted for. The Annual Subscription is Two Guineas, payable in advance, from the quarter-day next preceding the date of election. There is no fee on admission. Any Member, by a payment of Twenty Guineas, may at any time commute his annual subscription. Foreigners and persons not resident in Great Britain may become Corresponding Members, without payment of any subscription, if proposed and elected in the usual manner. Ladies are eligible as members.

Every Member whose subscription is not in arrear is entitled—

To be present at, and take part in, the proceedings of all the Ordinary Meetings of the Society, and to introduce two visitors at such meetings.—To be present and vote at all General Meetings of the Society.—To have personal free admission to all Exhibitions held by the Society at its House in the Adelphi.—To be present at all the Society's Conversazioni.—To receive a copy of the Weekly Journal, or of any work in which its Transactions or Proceedings shall be published by the Society subsequent to his election.—And to the use of the Library and Reading-Room.

The Session commences in November and ends in June. At the ordinary meetings of the Society on Wednesday evenings during the Session, at eight o'clock, papers on subjects relating to inventions improvements, discoveries, and other matters connected with the Arts, Manufactures, or Commerce of the Country are read and discussed.

* Gentlemen desirous of becoming Members should communicate with the Secretary, at the Society's House, Adelphi, London, W.C., who will also furnish information to Institutions relative to the terms and conditions of Union.

LIST OF INSTITUTIONS IN UNION.*

Any Institution or Provincial Union of Institutions, desirous of entering into Union with the Society of Arts, must fill up, sign, and return to the Secretary, a printed Form of Declaration, which will be furnished on application. When this form has been approved by the Council, the Institution is taken into Union. The subscription is two guineas annually, and may be paid in either of the two following ways: the President, or any other analogous officer of the Institution, may be elected a member of the Society of Arts; or the Institution or Provincial Union may contribute from its own funds the sum of two guineas. In the former case the gentleman so selected will enjoy all the privileges of a Member, and will, at the same time, give to his own Institution, so long as he continues to hold the same office in it, the advantages of the Union. In the latter case, the Institution itself will receive the advantages of the Union, but no individual member of the Institution will enjoy the full privileges of a member of the Society of Arts.

* In this List, the Institutions which have agreed to a General Interchange of Privileges are denoted by an asterisk. By means of this organisation and arrangement, a Member of one Institution, when visiting a town in which any other is situated, will be enabled to enjoy at the other, for the time being, all the advantages of membership. Any person wishing to avail himself of this privilege, needs only to present his Card of Membership, it being understood that he will abide by the Bye-Laws of the particular Institution he may visit, as well in regard to the time to which the privilege may be extended as to all other matters.
